

Announcements October 6th & 7th

This weekend is our Sacred Heart Ministry Fair for ministries that are in great need of volunteers. Please be sure to stop by the tables after Mass! If you brought back your time and talent form from last week, you can drop them in the offertory basket or the basket in the narthex.

This Monday is Columbus Day and the parish office will be closed. Monday and Tuesday of this week there will not be confession after the 7:00am Mass.

Next weekend is Rosary Weekend, and we invite you to come a half hour early to recite the Rosary before Mass. Marie Foley will also be selling her rosaries in the narthex.

In the next couple minutes, we ask you to reflect:

What is the gold standard for love in marriage?
